COMMENTS

- White floor finish chosen to provide clean, professional platform for photo shoots. Previous coating was deteriorating and starting to look permanently dirty.
- Non-slip topcoat option used to reduce gloss levels of floor, which helps limit glare during shoots.
- Coving installed along sections of the wall to make it easier to clean and avoid dirt build-up (which can become visible in photos).
- Studio situated underneath family home, with installation carried out while occupants present. A product free of pungent odours and dangerous solvents was a priority.
